

It is without a doubt, unconscionable and illegal, for Sinclair Broadcasting to show an anti-Kerry documentary shortly before the presidential election.

Such use of public airwaves, free of charge, clearly does not serve the public interest in a democracy such as ours.

This abuse is a striking example of why media ownership rules must be strengthened.